

3 THINGS TO KNOW

1

BSA is out of bankruptcy

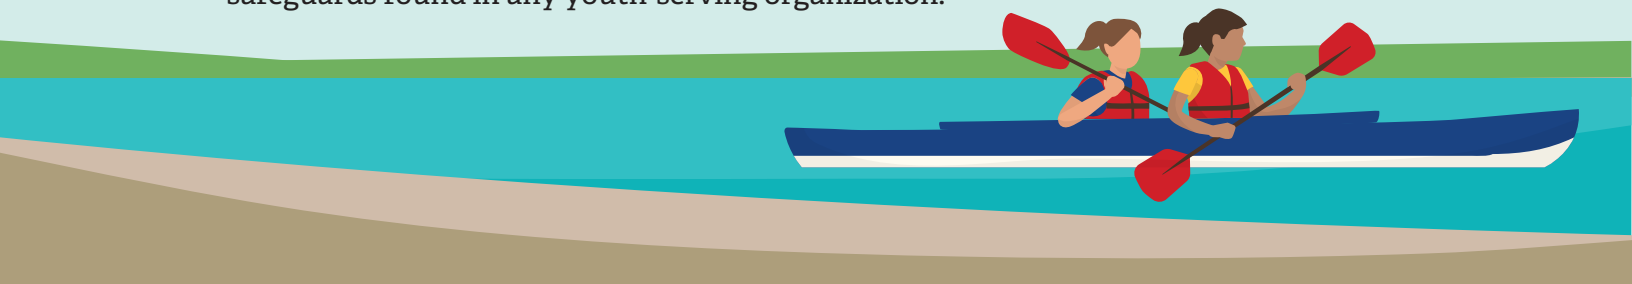

Our exit from Chapter 11 bankruptcy allows us to fulfill a commitment we made at the beginning of this process: to equitably compensate survivors while preserving the mission of Scouting.

2

Scouting is safer than ever before

We continually strengthen and update our youth protection policies. Developed with the help and insight of respected experts in the fields of child safety and law enforcement, Scouting delivers some of the strongest safeguards found in any youth-serving organization.

3

The future of Scouting is bright

Scouting is needed now more than ever! Our programs deliver timeless values and meaningful experiences that unite communities, bring families together and help young people become the very best versions of themselves.

Visit here to learn more about how Scouting is safer today than ever before